

Digital Sessions

Code of Conduct

- 1 Be kind: Macrobert is an open and inclusive organisation. Please read through our Behavioural Policy for further guidance.
- 2 Wear suitable clothing and ensure we can only see the people taking part on camera
- 3 Make sure your zoom name (first name only) matches the name on the booking so that we can admit you to the session.
- 4 Please allow the workshop leader to introduce themselves before unmuting your microphone
- 5 Make sure the space you're using is clear of hazards
- 6 Think about the best place for your camera – we want to see and hear you!
- 7 Do not take pictures, videos or screenshots of the session
- 8 Talk to the session leader directly if you're concerned about anything
- 9 Don't share the link for your session with anyone outside of your household
- 10 If you need to leave the session briefly, turn off your camera and turn it back on when you come back
